

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 001071-18

I write in connection with your request for information received by Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies on the 21 March 2018 in which you sought access to the following information:

“Since the introduction of the code of ethics how many instances of challenging and reporting improper conduct has there been by the following

Police officers by rank

Police staff

PCSO's

Special Constables By Rank”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 27 March 2018

Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies have considered your request for information and our response is below.

The College of Policing Code of Ethics was introduced in July 2014. A review of the internal conduct cases recorded from July 2014 has taken place to identify those cases containing a breach of 'Challenging and reporting improper conduct'.

Suffolk

No breaches of 'Challenging and reporting improper conduct' have been recorded on internal conduct cases since July 2014.

Norfolk

One conduct matter has been recorded for 'Challenging and reporting improper conduct' since July 2014. This related to a Police Constable failing to challenge another Police Constable. It was found that there was no case to answer.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
