1. Name of the contractor who won the bid
2. Names of contractors who put forward bids
3. Amount the winning bidder's price was
4. Amount each of the bidder's price was”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 11 June 2018

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

1. The above noted tender was withdrawn.
2. Boomerang and Everbridge.
3. N/a, the tender was withdrawn.
4. Section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) places two duties on public authorities. Unless exemptions apply, the first duty at s1(1)(a) is to confirm or deny whether the information specified in a request is held. The second duty at s1 (1)(b) is to disclose information that has been confirmed as being held.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires that Suffolk and Norfolk Constabularies, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) is to provide you, the applicant, with a notice in which:

- (a) States that fact
- (b) Specifies the exemption(s) in question and

(c) States (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption(s) applies.

The information is exempt from disclosure by virtue of the following exemption;

Section 43(2) – Commercial Interests

Section 43 is a Qualified Class-Based exemption and I am therefore required to produce a Public Interest Test.

Public Interest Test

(When applying a qualified exemption a public authority is required to consider whether In all circumstances of the case, the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information'.)

Considerations favouring disclosure

Where Public funds are being spent, there is a public interest in accountability and justification. In this case to provide the individual bidding costs that were put forward to win a contract, would show we are open and transparent, one of the fundamental principles of the Act. This would enable to the public to understand how much this particular contract is worth and the potential expenditure.

Considerations favouring non-disclosure

Third party interests might be jeopardised by the release of information that relates to sensitive commercial information and consequently could provide a competitive edge to other suppliers.

In this instance, this particular contract was withdrawn however this will be re-tendered at some point in the near future. To provide the costs that company's put forward, would give competitors a significant and unfair commercial advantage, as their costs can be compared to previous quotes which would present an unfair advantage and may result in prejudiced costs being put forward.

Balancing test

The use of public funds is a strong factor favouring disclosure as it will identify that the Constabularies maintain effective centralised procurement to ensure the most cost effective process.

However, to disclose information regarding costs that can affect future contracts being re-tendered, will identify to other suppliers prices considered by the Constabularies providing an unfair advantage in the procurement process. This would impact on commercial relationships, impeding tried and tested procurement processes, which would not be benefited by disclosure of this information.

On balance, the Public Interest favours non-disclosure as to do so may have implications to the processes in place within the Constabulary to enable such discounts.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
