I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 5 January 2019 in which you sought access to the following information:

“I’d like to have the following data for 2013/14 and 2017/2018 (financial year):

How many children were abducted by a parent? (Home Office 13/1 Abduction of a child by parent) Please provide this data broken down by:

- - Gender of offender.
- - Nationality of offender.
- - Name of the country each child has been taken to. If you cannot provide this information by each case, please provide just a full list of the countries' names.”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 14 January 2019

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

A search has been completed of the Constabulary’s crime system for all offences recorded during the 2013/14 and 2017/18 financial years, under Home office code 13/1 Abduction of a child by parent.

The table provided below confirms there were a total of 2 such offences, noting the nationality of the offender is not recorded.

Financial year	Offender Gender
2013/14	Female
2017/18	Male

The countries the children were reported to have been taken to are Germany and the Netherlands.

Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
