

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 000141-18

I write in connection with your request for information received by Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies on the 10 January 2018 in which you sought access to the following information:

“Following the amendment made to the Serious Crime Act 2015 (section 76) implemented in December 2015, how many people has your constabulary charged with coercive control offences from January to December 2016 and January to December 2017?”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 12 January 2018

Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies have considered your request for information and our response is below.

A search has been completed of the Constabularies crime system for all offences recorded of coercive and controlling behaviour, pursuant to Section 76 of the Serious Crime Act 2015.

The table provide below confirms the total number of individuals charged with the above offence, by year and force.

Force	2016	2017
Norfolk	9	22
Suffolk	18	36

Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
