

Freedom of Information Request Reference N<sup>o</sup>: FOI 000784-19

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk and Norfolk Constabularies on 25 February 2019 which you sought access to the following information:

1. "How many reports of criminal damage to police vehicles each year since and including 2014 to 2019?"
2. How many convictions for criminal damage towards police vehicles each year since and including 2014 to 2019?"
3. What is the estimated cost value of damage to Suffolk and Norfolk Police vehicles as a result of criminal damage each year since and including 2014 to 2019?"

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 25 February 2019

Suffolk and Norfolk Constabularies have considered your request for information and the response is below.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. The Constabularies do not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, all of the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, exceeding the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests in terms of costs and therefore, Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies. It is considered that to provide an answer to your request will take in excess of 36 hours to provide the information.

In relation to Question 2 of your request, information concerning criminal damage and costs are held on separate databases, neither of which confirm the crime reference number in order for us to easily cross refer to the crime system. In order to retrieve conviction/outcome details of the criminal damage offences would involve us manually reviewing all "Criminal Damage to a Vehicle" offences for the time frame requested to ascertain if this related to a police vehicle. Since the introduction of our new crime recording system Athena (October 2015) to date there are a total of 9,012 offences, this would way exceed the time restraints to research each case.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: "...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit." The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the 'appropriate limit' for the Constabularies as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work per force at a standard rate of £25 per hour. This equates to 36 hours of work, or £900, for joint responses.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Although excess cost removes the Force's obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

The Joint Insurance Section has retrieved the number claims of criminal damage that gave rise to a cost, please note there may be additional incidents but where no cost was involved.

In addition, during 2014 Suffolk and Norfolk used different claim recording systems, and therefore data was transferred from one system to another, as a result it could be that some claims were missed or not coded correctly.

Number of claims:

Year	Norfolk	Suffolk
2014	0	2
2015	1	5
2016	4	2
