

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 000892-19

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 5 March 2019 in which you sought access to the following information:

1. “How many instances of missing children did you have reported to you Jan 2017-Jan 2019? Can you send gender/age/location/outcome breakdown? Please can you also indicate how many different children were reported missing for comparison.
2. Can you send me your information sharing protocols from local authority Return Home Interviews, if you have any? Please indicate if you do not.
3. If a senior member of staff is happy to offer an opinion - would you say you feel enough information is being shared with you by local authorities from return interviews? (Y/N) Do you have any data gathering mechanisms for whether child exploitation happens in particular areas and is this database supported by information gained from information sharing with the local authority?
4. How many times was child exploitation reported to you in connection with a Return Home Interview Jan 2014-Jan 2019?”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 6 March 2019

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. Suffolk Constabulary does not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, which would exceed 18 hours. This would exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests, in terms of costs and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies.

In relation to Question 4 of your request, this would a manual review of every single Return Home Interview provided by the Children and Young Persons Service between 2014 and 2019. This would be a very time consuming task and would require the review of thousands of records, way exceeding the statutory time restraints of the FOI Act.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: "...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit." The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the 'appropriate limit' for the Suffolk Constabulary as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the £450 limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Although excess cost removes the Force's obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

The total number of missing episodes for children between 01/01/017 – 31/03/2019 is 5876, this can be broken down as follows:

Gender breakdown:

Males – 3158

Females – 2717

Transgender – 1

Age Breakdown:

0 – 4: 50

5 – 8: 49

9 – 11:143

12 – 14: 1670

15 – 17: 3964

Suffolk Constabulary does not have any Information Sharing Agreements in relation to Return Home Interviews.
