

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 000915-19

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 5 March 2019 in which you sought access to the following information:

1. “How many EEKs (Early Evidence Kits) and rape kits/sexual assault forensic evidence (SAFE) kits have been received each year by your police force in the last 3 years.
2. How many EEKs and rape kits have been destroyed/lost/misplaced by your police force each year in the same period. Please indicate instances where, if any, evidence was destroyed/lost/misplaced before a case was closed.
3. By 'rape kit', I am referring to the tools/package of items used by medical personnel for gathering and preserving physical evidence following an allegation of sexual assault.”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 11 March 2019

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. Suffolk Constabulary does not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, which would exceed 18 hours. This would exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests, in terms of costs and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies.

Suffolk Constabulary do not centrally record the number of Early Evidence Kits received and in addition the numbers that have been lost/misplaced/destroyed. To retrieve lost/destroyed numbers would require a manual review of all records of EEKs during the past 3 years to establish if they were used and destroyed.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: “...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.” The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the 'appropriate limit' for the Suffolk Constabulary as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the £450 limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Although excess cost removes the Force's obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

The Suffolk Constabulary Procurement Department can confirm the number of kits purchased during the last 3 years as follows:

2015/2016 = 168
2016/2017 = 243
2017/2018 = 331
2018/2019 = 294 up to 1 March 2019
