

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 001058-19

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk and Norfolk Constabularies on 18 March 2019 which you sought access to the following information:

“Can you please provide me with the following information from April 2017 up to the most recently available data:

- 1. The number of suspects released under police investigation for: all crimes; violent offences; sexual offences; rape; murder; manslaughter; a domestic abuse crime (any offence with a DV tag).*
- 2. The number of suspects in each category above that went on to be arrested for a further offence.*
- 3. The nature of those further suspected offences (including whether it was a violent offence, sexual offence; rape; murder; manslaughter; or a domestic abuse crime).*

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 22 March 2019

Suffolk and Norfolk Constabularies have considered your request for information and the response is below.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. The Constabularies do not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, all of the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, exceeding the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests in terms of costs and therefore, Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies. It is considered that to provide an answer to your request will take in excess of 36 hours to provide the information.

In relation to questions 2 and 3 of your request, this information is not readily available or easily searchable; it would require a manual review of all suspects released under investigation for the time frame specified. This would be a very time consuming task and would exceed statutory time restraints.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: "...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit." The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the 'appropriate limit' for the Constabularies as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work per force at a standard rate of £25 per hour. This equates to 36 hours of work, or £900, for joint responses.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Although excess cost removes the Force's obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

Between the time periods of 1 April 2017 and 21 March 2019, the following total of persons were Released under Investigation (RUI):

Suffolk: 6475

Norfolk: 7661
