

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 001233-18

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 4 April 2018 in which you sought access to the following information:

1. "The number of gang related assaults and murders for each month in 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and up to the most recent month possible in 2018. I'd like the figures broken down by:
 - Charge
 - Number of people injured or killed during the incident
2. The total number of assaults and murders for each month in 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and up to the most recent month possible in 2018. I'd like the figures broken down by:
 - Charge
 - Number of people injured or killed during the incident

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 4 April 2018.

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. Suffolk Constabulary does not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, which would exceed 18 hours. This would exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests, in terms of costs and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies.

Suffolk Constabulary is unable to confirm the number of offences that refer specifically to gang related activity as there is no specific offence for such occurrence. The introduction of the new crime system Athena during November 2015, saw the introduction of a 'gang relater' flag, however this is a non-mandatory option and it will not provide the most accurate information. The data will also very much depend on ones interpretation of the term 'gang'.

Prior to November 2015, no such flag was available and we would therefore require manually reviewing all offences to establish whether there was a gang element to the crime. Although a freetext of the word 'gang' could be undertaken, such a search would be wholly inaccurate and bring back potentially misleading information.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: "...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit." The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the 'appropriate limit' for the Suffolk Constabulary as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the £450 limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.
