

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 001233-19

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 28 March 2019 in which you sought access to the following information:

1. “Vehicles that have been stolen in Suffolk since January 2014, broken down by month if possible.
 - a. Please could you include type of vehicle (e.g. Ford Fiesta) and street and town/city it was stolen (e.g. car park, Rose Lane. Norwich).
 - b. Please could you include (if possible):
 - Whether it was a keyless vehicle.
 - Colour of the vehicle.
 - The first two letters and two numbers of the number plate.
 - Whether the vehicle was recovered.”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 10 April 2019

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. Suffolk Constabulary does not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, which would exceed 18 hours. This would exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests, in terms of costs and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies.

In relation to the make/model, colour, registration, and if the vehicle was keyless, this information is not easily retrievable. Whilst it is held within a central database, we cannot at this moment in time extract this information, and therefore to retrieve this data would require manually case reading over 3000 investigation. At 5 minutes per search this would take within 200-300 hours to retrieve way exceeding the statutory time restraints of the FOI Act.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: “...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.” The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the ‘appropriate limit’ for the Suffolk Constabulary as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the £450 limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Although excess cost removes the Force's obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

The attached spreadsheet provides a breakdown of the vehicles stolen per calendar year, the relevant criminal offence, and the district in which the vehicle was stolen within.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
