

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 001239-19

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 29 March 2019 in which you sought access to the following information:

“How many "closure order" applications have you made in the last five years (2014,2015,2016,2017,2018)? Please can you say what year the closure order was made and the reason given for it (eg drug use/noise) etc. Also, whether the order was rejected or granted.”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 8 April 2019

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. Suffolk Constabulary does not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, which would exceed 18 hours. This would exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests, in terms of costs and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies.

The Constabulary does not routinely record all closure order applications in a central location. Although many of these will be recorded within the crime system Athena and via intelligence submissions, they are not searchable and we can therefore not rely on the accuracy of the data we extract based on a freetext of the words 'closure order'.

Considering the number of intelligence submissions we would need to review, it would take an immeasurable amount of time to extract reliable data to answer this request accurately.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: “...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.” The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the 'appropriate limit' for the Suffolk Constabulary as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the £450 limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Although excess cost removes the Force's obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

The Suffolk Constabulary Licensing department have confirmed that one closure was applied for in licensing in July 2015.
