

Freedom of Information Request Reference N^o: FOI 001350-19

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk and Norfolk Constabularies on 5 April 2019 which you sought access to the following information:

“Please can you tell me the number of police family liaison officers that have been in position within your force as of the 1st January (or the nearest available date) for each of the following calendar years: 2010 - 2019”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 15 April 2019

Suffolk and Norfolk Constabularies have considered your request for information and the response is below.

Suffolk and Norfolk Constabularies do not record the number of Family Liaison Officers (FLOs) we have had in previous years. The only information we hold centrally relates to the current number of FLOs and we can also provide data held from previous FOI responses. The table provided below confirms the number of FLOs recorded for the specific dates mentioned:

Date	Norfolk	Suffolk
31 March 2013	101	49
5 December 2017	64	72
31 March 2018	67	70
1 April 2019	70	66

This is a fluid figure that will change dependant on officer movements and postings. It is therefore not possible to confirm the number of FLOs we have had in a year, as this information is not held.

In order to establish the number of FLOs we had at the same date each year would require us to manually review HR records to establish who was in an FLO role at that time. Considering the many hundreds of records we would need to review, this would take well in excess of 18 hours to extract, per force.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. The Constabularies do not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, all of the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, exceeding the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests in terms of costs and therefore, Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies.

It is considered that to provide an answer to your request will take in excess of 36 hours to provide the information.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: "...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit." The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the 'appropriate limit' for the Constabularies as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work per force at a standard rate of £25 per hour. This equates to 36 hours of work, or £900, for joint responses.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
