

Freedom of Information Request Reference N<sup>o</sup>: FOI 001845-18

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 25 May 2018 in which you sought access to the following information:

“The latest available annual figures (January to December 2017) for the number of reported crimes committed against people aged 65 and over in Suffolk.

The figures for the number of reported crimes committed against people aged 65 and over the previous year (January to December 2016).

The figures for the number of reported crimes committed against people aged 65 and over 10 years ago (January to December 2007).

A breakdown into categories of the types of crimes committed against people aged 65 and over for each of the three years.”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 6 June 2018

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

A search has been completed of the Constabulary's crime system for all offences recorded where the victims are aged 65 or over, for the 2007, 2016 and 2017 calendar years.

The information provided on the attached spreadsheet confirms the total number of offences recorded by year and crime type.

Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.
