Freedom of Information Request Reference N^o: FOI 003226/20

I write in connection with your request for information received by the Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies on the 23rd September 2020 in which you sought access to the following information:

- Could you provide the statistics on hit and run road traffic accidents in 2019 as well as 2019/2020?
- How many of these incidents were reported to your force and what was the legal outcome?
- Were there any injuries?
- What vehicles were involved?
- What were the top ten roads these accidents were mostly reported?

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 24th September 2020.

Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies have considered your request and our response is below.

When responding to a request for information under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act, a public authority is not obliged to provide information if the authority estimates that the cost of the retrieval of the information requested would be in excess of £450 (equivalent to 18 hours work).

The costs criteria relates to a request in its entirety, which means that if we cannot retrieve all of the information requested within the costs limit, we are not obliged to retrieve any of the information requested.

The Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies estimates that to retrieve all the information you have requested for both forces would exceed cost in excess of £450 (per force).

The figures for questions 1 and 2 have been provided at the end of this response letter. It is not possible to electronically extract the information requested for the remainder of your request. The collision records would each need to be manually reviewed in order to provide that level of detail. Based on the figures provided below, that would be an enormous task.

This research would therefore significantly exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with a Freedom of Information request, in terms of costs, and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act applies.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act states that a public authority is not obliged to:

“...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit”.

The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations 2004, defines the 'appropriate limit' for the Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies as £450 for each Constabulary, and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act (2000), this serves as a Refusal Notice for your request.

Advice & assistance

Although excess cost removes Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relevant to your request, which was retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.
