

Freedom of Information Request Reference N^o: FOI 003760-18

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk and Norfolk Constabularies on 12 October 2018 which you sought access to the following information:

“Since the blanket ban came into force on May 26 in 2016, how many people has your police force arrested on suspicion of possession with the intent to supply new psychoactive substances?”

*Please break the data down by financial years 2016/17 and 2017/18 and by age.
Please provide the youngest age of each person arrested, by year.”*

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 17 October 2018

Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
