

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 003792-18

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 16 October 2018 in which you sought access to the following information:

“A recent news article (<https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-36988316> and <https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-scotland-glasgow-west-36985807>) reported on the number of incidents involving butane hash oil (BHO) – also known as “honey oil”, “dabs” or “shatter” – which have led to service callouts.

Within this context, for each of the last five financial years (including 2018/19):

How many callouts have been linked with BHO production?

How many (a) fatalities and (b) injuries did these callouts/incidents result in?”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 25 October 2018

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

Suffolk Constabulary changed telephone recording system on 19 November 2013 to STORM, and are therefore only able to search from this date onwards.

A search has been conducted on the terms of “butane hash oil”, “honey oil”, “dabs” and “shatter”.

Since 19 November 2013, there have been no incidents recorded that contain either of the keywords searched on above, relevant to butane hash oil.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
