

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 003933-18

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 24 October 2018 in which you sought access to the following information:

“Please confirm how many victims of crime in your area were homeless or had no fixed address in 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017.”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 9 November 2018

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

The Constabulary's legacy crime system, CIS, which holds data prior to 19 October 2015, does not hold victim address information in a searchable format. The Constabulary would be required to review each recorded offence to establish whether the victim was no fixed abode at the time of the offence or not.

Considering the many hundreds of crimes recorded in any one week, it would take a significantly excessive time to extract the data for the 2014 and 2015 calendar years, to 19 October 2015.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. Suffolk Constabulary does not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, which would exceed 18 hours. This would exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests, in terms of costs and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: “...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.” The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the ‘appropriate limit’ for the Suffolk Constabulary as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the £450 limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Although excess cost removes the Force's obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

A search has been completed of the Constabulary's current crime system for all offences recorded from 19 October 2015, where the victims address is recorded as NFA or no fixed abode. Please note that this is a non-mandatory field and therefore the data only relates to those occasions where this field has been completed.

The total number of offences recorded, including the offence classification, is provided in the table below, by year.

HOCR Group	2015	2016	2017
ARSON AND CRIMINAL DAMAGE	1	2	5
BURGLARY		2
PUBLIC ORDER OFFENCES		6	10
ROBBERY	1	4	8
SEXUAL OFFENCES	1	1	10
THEFT	2	24	35
VEHICLE OFFENCES		1	2
VIOLENCE AGAINST THE PERSON	12	54	94
Total	17	94	164

Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
