Freedom of Information Request Reference N^o: FOI 003947/18

I write in connection with your request for information received by the Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies on the 25th October 2018 in which you sought access to the following information:

ORIGINAL REQUEST

FOI 1: I would like to know how many of your police officers have being found to have 'committed gross misconduct' by an Officer Misconduct Hearing due to, or involving, a sexual misconduct, in the last 3 years, from the date of reply.

FOI 2: I would also like to know how many of the above instances resulted in the following possible outcomes:

- Dismissal without notice
- Final written warning
- Extension added to a final written warning
- Written warning
- Management advice
- No further action

For instance, if 10 officers were found to have committed gross misconduct, how many were dismissed, how many had a final warning, etc.

FURTHER REQUEST

I would like to request some further information with regards to my previous email on police misconduct.

I would like to know how many charges were brought against officers after they were found to have committed gross misconduct of a sexual nature by an officer misconduct hearing in the last three years, from the point of reply to this email.

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 6th November 2018.

Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies have located the following information as relevant to your request. Please note, a criminal investigation will be completed prior to any misconduct proceedings.

In the last 3 years, no Officers were subject to criminal charges in respect of allegations of sexual misconduct.

This response will be published on the Constabularies web-site under the Freedom of Information pages:-
