Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 004007-19

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 5 November 2019 in which you sought access to the following information:

- 1. "The total number of domestic burglaries reported to police between December 1, 2014 to December 25, 2014?"*
- 2. Can you also tell me that same figure for the same time period for 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018?"*
- 3. Of the figures, can you please tell me how many Christmas presents were reported to have been stolen?"*
- 4. And, if possible, what were the presents?"*
- 5. And, again if possible, what is the total value of the presents/items stolen from domestic addresses for the time periods given?"*

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 6 November 2019

Suffolk Constabulary has considered your request for information and the response is below.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. Suffolk Constabulary does not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, which would exceed 18 hours. This would exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests, in terms of costs and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies.

A search has been carried out for domestic burglaries during the month of December for the past 5 years, this has returned 1313 crimes. Each crime would need to be case read to establish if in fact items stolen included Christmas presents; what they were and the value if recorded, and at 5 minutes per search this would take in the region of 109 hours to retrieve.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: “...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.” The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the ‘appropriate limit’ for the Suffolk Constabulary as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the £450 limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Although excess cost removes the Force’s obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

The below table provides a breakdown of domestic burglaries in December from 2014 – 2018:

Year	Total
2014	300
2015	270
2016	331
2017	195
2018	217
