

Freedom of Information Request Reference N°: FOI 005343-17

I write in connection with your request for information received by Suffolk Constabulary on the 16 June 2017 in which you sought access to the following information:

1. “How many individuals are currently registered by gender
2. In the last three years how many have breached their order.
3. Since 2011 how many orders have been discharged.
4. How many individuals are currently unaccounted for.”

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 16 June 2017

Suffolk Constabularies have considered your request for information and our response is below.

In relation to your request for information and in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), this response serves as a formal notification of refusal for your request. Suffolk Constabulary does not hold, for the purposes of FOIA, the information you require in a retrievable format.

It is estimated that to attempt to retrieve all of the information you require would take a considerable amount of retrieval time, which would exceed 18 hours. This would exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with Freedom of Information requests, in terms of costs and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies.

In order to obtain information concerning the number of individuals who have had their SOPOs discharged would require us to research each record individually, which would not account of those persons whom have left the Suffolk area during the time frame.

Considering there are approximately 700 individuals on the register at any one time, it would take in excess of 50 hours to extract the data for this part of the request.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states that a Public Authority is not obliged to: “...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.” The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations, defines the ‘appropriate limit’ for the Suffolk Constabulary as £450 and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter serves as a refusal notice for this part of your request.

By requesting all information your request is too broad to be complied with within the £450 limit imposed on Freedom of Information requests.

Although excess cost removes the Force's obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

There are currently 525 males and 5 females recorded as having a SHPO/SOPO (this includes those in custody, hospitals etc)

A search has been completed of the Constabulary's crime system for all breaches recorded of a SHPO/SOPO offence. A total of 39 offences, which includes 6 attempts have been recorded.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact Clair Pack, FOI Decision Maker, quoting the reference number shown above.
