Responding to issues in your community

You will now be aware of the changes to local policing in the area but for more information please see the Suffolk police website or to view the booklet "A local police service for Suffolk's future" please go to www.suffolknwa.co.uk which has a printable version on the Suffolk Neighbourhood Watch website.

Making the community safer

Pcso Osborne has taken a new role within Suffolk Police and will now be working as a Domestic Abuse Officer, she would like to give her thanks to all those that have supported her over the last 9 Years since she has been based in Beccles, we wish her the very best in her new Role in Lowestoft.

Preventing, reducing and solving crime and ASB

From the 27th October - 2nd November we officially Launched 1st Principle our A-Z on crime prevention, during this week across the county we did several crime prevention events including A home security event at Beccles Town Hall on the 27th October and a general crime prevention event at Bungay Library on the 31st October. On some of our events we were supported by Suffolk Safekey, Suffolk Fire Service, East Suffolk Council, and Trading Standards and would like to extend our thanks to all.
