CRIME REDUCTION ADVICE

Property Marking -There are a number of ways of security marking your valuables to protect them against theft and assist police to return them to you if they have been recovered. These include Ultra violet (UV) or invisible marking, Engraving or etching, Ceramic marking or Forensics marking solutions as offered by firms such as Smartwater (www.smartwater.com) and Selectadna (www.selectadna.co.uk).

Photograph your valuables - Photographs should be taken against a plain background and include a ruler to give an idea of size.

Close it, Lock it, Check it – Open windows can be seen as opportunities for burglars. Please ensure that downstairs windows and other ones vulnerable to entry are shut. When leaving home check that all windows have been shut and locked.

Review your home security regularly – We suggest you look at the Secured by design – www.securedbydesign.com – for Police approved supplies of everything from Door locks to fencing to intruder alarms.

Cyber Crime – Get Safe Online at www.getsafeonline.org/norfolksuffolk has advice on personal and business Internet use including safeguarding children, physical protection of smart phones and tablets. It also has info on the different types of Internet fraud, how to protect your Internet connection and much more.

IXWORTH WARD

There has been increased calls from the public around a group of youths causing Anti Social Behaviour in and around the Ixworth Village Hall. Work is ongoing at identifying these youths. If you witness any acts of Anti Social Behaviour (such as climbing on roofs, vandalism, inconsiderate riding of mopeds etc) then please call in on 999. Those responsible and believed to be local to Ixworth so we would ask parents to make sure they know what their children are up to when they go out with their friends.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Could you be Special in 2017?

Suffolk Police are launching a New Year #CouldYouBeSpecial campaign to attract recruits into the Special Constabulary. Being a member of the Special Constabulary opens up a range of special opportunities; to volunteer, to connect with your community, to get new skills, to extend your personal limits, to reduce harm, to inspire others to join, to make others and yourself proud of what you a difference you can make. Becoming part of a diverse organisation that fights crime in the county, it is also a positive way to try police work if you are considering a career as a full time officer.

Special Constables are volunteer officers who give their time to assist the regular police force in keeping communities in Suffolk safe. Committed recruits, keen to experience the rewards and challenges of policing are being actively sought. The role of a Special Constable includes providing high visibility patrols and helping to police major incidents and events. They also offer vital links in the partnership between the police service and the public.

If you are 18 years or older, in good health and of good character, you can apply. Full training will be given so that you can become part of a team that deals with a variety of incidents and events across Suffolk.

Karen Harris, Specials Manager said, "We are actively recruiting volunteer police officers to be stationed all around Suffolk. We welcome applicants with a range of skills and experience from across our community. Whatever hours you can offer, we are very keen to hear from you. You will be given excellent training, on-going development and support and will become part of Suffolk's successful Special Constabulary. If you are interested please contact specialsandvolunteers@suffolk.pnn.police.uk, call 01473 613589 or check www.suffolk.police.uk for dates and times of our recruitment evenings."

A number of Special Constabulary recruitment information evenings are being held across the county. Details are as follows:-
