FURTHER INFORMATION

During the month of November 2016 Felixstowe had 183 recorded investigations: (Investigations relate not only to recorded criminal offences, but also investigations into safeguarding individuals).

Amongst the investigations was a Burglary report where it was suspected that the offender had gained access by reaching through a cat flap in the back door and removing the door key. After acquiring the key the back door was unlocked and property removed.

Please consider hanging all keys in a secure location, maybe a kitchen cabinet or draw out of sight of any thief looking through windows.

There was also a nasty robbery in Vicarage Road at 11am on Wednesday the 16th of November. A 75yr old lady was home with her 83yr old husband when the suspect approached from behind them from behind and grabbed hold of her shoulder bag, pulling it with such force she fell to the floor. The offender then ran off with the bag up Vicarage Road and into Oaks Close being chased by her husband. suspect described as;

M/W medium build, with short No 3 type hair cut with dark hair, wearing black below the knee shorts and a black short sleeved tee-shirt, and black trainers.

Police have arrested a suspect who is currently on bail pending further investigation.

Any information please contact on 101 and quote Investigation 37/66599/16.

Police located and detained a male for a drugs search in Grange Farm Avenue. He was found in possession of illegal drugs and a large quantity of cash and was arrested and currently on Police bail while further investigations continue.

FURTHER INFORMATION

In the Trimleys, an offender entered a transit van parked in Ashground Close and stole welding equipment.

A stable block was entered in Newbourne and pedal cycles and a lawn mower was stolen. Another nearby location had padlocks smashed off outdoor building doors but nothing was stolen from inside.

A suspect was dealt with for possessing a loaded air weapon in a public place on Nacton foreshore. Police have seized the weapon and the suspect is being dealt with.

A quad bike was stolen from a caravan site storage shed at Priory Park Nacton and used to tow a golf buggy which was located nearby. They used garden tools from the shed to cut through chain securing the quad bike.

An attempt to gain entry to the petrol filling station shop at Sainsburys was foiled when the metal framed door was not compromised by attempts to force with metal bars.
