Responding to issues in your community

During the month of November 2018 there was a total of 267 investigations in the Felixstowe and District. (Investigations relate not only to recorded criminal offences, but also safeguarding individuals). Criminal Offences recorded range from various assaults and public order offences to theft and burglary and drug possession.

Making the community safer

On 20th November Felixstowe Officers were involved in a day of action to tackle drug crime. A quantity of Class A drugs, Cannabis, cash and mobile phones were seized at an address in Runnacles Way Felixstowe and three arrests were made.

On 22nd November Police executed a Warrant at an address in Reedland Way Felixstowe where small amount of Class A drugs were located. A male was interviewed and issued with a Police Caution.

On 30th November Police received numerous calls from members of the public reporting a male smashing windows in the shelter on Sea Road. Michael Rouse of no fixed abode was arrested, interviewed and charged to court. Mr Rouse was convicted of Criminal Damage to the shelter and to his Police Cell at the Police Investigation Centre in Martlesham. Mr Rouse was imprisoned for 2 days and ordered to pay costs.

Preventing, reducing and solving crime and ASB

In November Suffolk Constabulary pledged to support the White Ribbon Campaign 2018 aimed at putting a stop to Domestic Abuse. Talking to someone was seen as the first step. Contact the National Domestic Violence helpline 0800 2000 247 In an emergency dial 999

Fraud has become a common way for criminals to attempt to steal your money. Be aware of the different types of Fraud and current scams in your area. Police have been made aware of a phone scam in Felixstowe where someone purporting to be a Detective Constable investigating a Fraud has phoned up and remained on the line to gain personal details. Police will never phone you and request you bank details or ask to you send your bank cards with pin number in the post as part of any investigation.
