We did...

- 1, we have written a number of tickets for vehicles parked on double yellow lines.
2. currently we are working with Sainsburys and SCC to look at other places for them to go.
3. we have carried out some patrols and identified some young people smoking cannabis we have spoken to them with their families and offered some help and support.

PC Helen Self

Responding to issues in your community

Following on from the recent PCC meeting held in Brandon where we received a complaint about vehicles using the Jubilee car park in an anti social manner we have been working with the Parish Council and CCTV. the work is still ongoing

Pc 309 Helen SELF has started a new role as Community Engagement officer covering Forest Heath. working with the SNT to promote the work they do and to attend engagements.

Making the community safer

we will be going into the local schools and carrying out some assemblies in relation to Knife crime and the consequences of carrying knives in the community.

Preventing, reducing and solving crime and ASB

ASB in and around Sainsburys Mildenhall we are working with Mildenhall Collage academy and Sainsburys to identify young people who may be causing issues intending to work closely with them and their families to help solve the issue. Surgeries will be held soon if you wish to discuss any concerns or issues.
