Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in joining the Suffolk Special Constabulary.

Enclosed you will find the Special Constabulary information brochure, application form and supporting guidance notes. Working for the Special Constabulary can be rewarding and fulfilling, offering you a structured training and development opportunity whilst serving the local community.

Within the application you are required to provide competency examples (pages 11 &12). We encourage you to carefully select your examples to best evidence against each competency area. Suffolk Constabulary recruit in accordance with the College of Policing standards, all assessment are conducted by trained Assessors. Should you have any questions relating to the application or recruitment process, please contact the Recruitment Team on the above details.

Events are regularly hosted by the Special Constabulary, if you have not already attended an information event or you would like to meet with a representative from the service, please contact us and we will be able to introduce you.

We would like to thank you again for your interest in the Special Constabulary and look forward to receiving your application in the very near future.

Yours Sincerely,

Recruitment Officer
Norfolk & Suffolk Constabulary
