Additional Officers were on duty over the Christmas & New Year period in our part of Suffolk to respond more quickly to reports of anticipated anti-social behaviour

PC Jon Gerrish

Responding to issues in your community

Suffolk Constabulary launched a speeding campaign on the 7th of January, running for three weeks. The first week will concentrate on speaking with drivers and educating them about the risks and dangers of speeding, with the second & third weeks aimed at enforcement. Although fatal collisions in 2018 were half that of the preceding year, there were still 17 incidents.

Making the community safer

Police connect - we are always looking for more people to sign up to Police connect which is a free messenger service for those who cannot access social media, which means you can receive texts messages or emails with up to date information about policing in your area. You can go online on this link <https://www.suffolk.police.uk/services/police-connect> and register

Preventing, reducing and solving crime and ASB

Following the Festive Season it is advisable to take steps to protect your property old and new. Register your property for free at www.immobilise.com. Immobilise is the largest free register of possession ownership details used by members of the public and businesses. It is a very effective tool in helping the reduce crime and repatriate recovered personal property to its rightful owners.
